

A little over a year ago, I was loaded a CAPTEL machine which eliminated the use of a relay operator and allowed me to be in control of my own telephone calls with my own voice. This was voice activated tech. Washington State did not choose this carrier because they chose another carrier for relay. How can we as deaf individuals make sure that we are getting the latest tech that we need.